

Erin Mollett

I was raised in Los Alamos and graduated in 2001. I decided to move to Florida to be near the warm weather, beautiful beaches, and pursue my Montessori education. I began teaching under the direction of an awesome AMI instructor. In 2006 I received my AMS certificate from Orlando Montessori Teacher Education Institute. I continued teaching at the 3-6 year level, and was promoted to Primary Division Coordinator in 2009. September 2011 I made the choice to relocate back to Los Alamos to be near my family, raise my wonderful 3 year old son and continue my education in American Sign Language at Santa Fe Community College. I am happy to have the opportunity to be a part of the Sage Cottage team!
