

Board Secretary

Felicia Orth is the New Mexico Environment Department Hearing Officer. She conducts permitting, adjudicatory and rulemaking hearings in air quality, solid waste, hazardous waste, liquid waste, ground water, surface water and construction programs. Previously, she worked in the Los Alamos County Attorney's Office, the NMED Office of General Counsel, and as an associate in a large law firm in the Midwest specializing in toxic tort litigation. Ms. Orth has an undergraduate degree in Philosophy from Washington University in St. Louis and a law degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Along with the Sage Cottage Board, she is currently serving on the Los Alamos Utilities Board and Pajarito Environmental Center Board. She and her husband and two sons have especially enjoyed the canyons in Los Alamos since moving here in 1996.
