

Kenzie Wannigman

My name is Kenzie Wannigman and I am a senior attending Los Alamos High School. When I graduate, I am hoping to go off to California and study Child Development/Elementary Education. I work afternoons at the Cottage and really enjoy my job. It has really shown me the benefits and the disadvantages of working with children. It is a very rewarding job and I also have a lot of fun while I work.